

WORLD OF RADIO #1066, produced January 17, 2001 by Glenn Hauser

- *New Jan-Feb edition of Mundo Radial starts Jan 17 on WWCN, Fridays 2215 on 9475, repeated weekly
- *Spanish translation of my 2000 SW Year in Review at <http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/swyir00s.html>
- *The disadvantages of SSB for broadcasting; example: Turkmenistan
- *R. Tashkent, Uzbekistan, English broadcasts monitored
- *All India Radio, Ranchi making it into North America on 60m
- *Bangladesh Betar in English as heard in Denmark
- *R. Thailand changed English frequency to Europe; see DXLD 1-008
- *R. P'yongyang complete English schedule, includes spurs?
- *V. of Tibet, clandestine, latest frequencies for two broadcasts
- *VOT not mentioned in survey of most popular stations among exile Tibetans; VOA leads all the others, VOA says; see DXLD 1-007
- *Why does China bother to participate in frequency coordination meetings, since it put two transmitters on longtime VOA outlets?
- *Iran reports its schedule, but does not take part in discussions
- *Iranian paper claims CIA was backing National Iranian TV from LA
- *V. of the Communist Party of Iran, monitored on 80m in Britain
- *R. Station Freedom, V. of the Communist Party of Iraqi Kurdistan heard on 80m in Lithuania
- *Clinton administration approves plan to help Iraqi opposition thru Iraqi National Congress, including TV and radio, says Jan 14 Washington Post, from inside northern Iraq
- *R. Jordan announces English will be on 11 instead of 17 MHz
- *Standard disclaimer
- *WOR 1066, wghauser@hotmail.com or P O Box 1684, Enid, OK 73702 USA; <http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/> for schedule, DXLD stash and much more
- *Thanks this week for financial support go to Pete Bentley
- *Tip for Rational Living: Einstein on cats
- *New catalog from Universal Radio, pennants on the cover, 104 pages free by 4th class, $3 for priority, 5 IRCs outside North America, from 6830 Americana Pkwy, Reynoldsburg OH 43068-4113 USA, or <http://www.universal-radio.com> or dx@universal-radio.com and tell them Glenn Hauser sent you
- *Israel's first web TV about to launch, <http://www.israTV.com>
- *IBA TV news in English on demand via <http://israelradio.org/english.html>
- *Angola foreign language schedule monitored, differs from awful WRTH
- *R. Lusofonia from South Africa is in English, not Portuguese
- *RCD rebel station from Congo DR believed heard again
- *RVI Belgium expands broadcasts to Congo DR
- *V. of Greece may have started testing new transmitters; schedule changes
- *La Mejor Musica de Nuestro Sello, fine music program from Spain
- *Quote, Unquote, back on BBCWS for six weeks

*No SW from El Salvador, so try webcasts <http://live.genesis.com.sv> or <http://www.tvradioworld.com> or <http://www.infoelsalvador.com>
*Honduran net to assist El Salvador on 7090
*Colombian MW harmonics: La Basica 1040; R. Uno; Armonias del Palmar
*Ecuadorian MW harmonic: La Voz de la Juventud, Canyar; R. Monumental
*HCJB seems using high power AM on 21 MHz instead of ham SSB unit
*Argentine ISB feeder with broadcasters heard as LTA with traffic
*LRA36 Antarctica plans return to SW on Jan 20
*Venezuelan president's Sunday morning call-in via <http://www.unionradio.com.ve> and also on SW via R. Habana Cuba, R.
Rebelde, but which frequencies?
*Analysis of Terion SW frequency usage, 4486-23515; see DXLD 1-006
*KCFM, classical for Tulsa, converts to KTSO, Tulsa's Soft Oldies
*Special public radio program from Jan 20, The Struggle for Iran,
<http://www.iranproject.org>
*For owners of Sony ICF-2010: <http://www.egroups.com/group/icf2010>
*WWV asking listeners to write for questionnaire from nist.radio@boulder.nist.gov
*Propagation outlook from Boulder, Jan 16; flux range 150-180
*Time to appreciate your favourite WOR affiliate; please E-mail or
P-mail them thanking them for carrying WOR
*This was WOR 1066; me? I'm Glenn Hauser

###